

Meeting minutes for Day of the Huntress, day 25 of the month Fashanos in the year 5111
Members in Attendance: Ranpalandil, Aisalt, Landrat, Rasti, Anta, Whispern

Kysari on the amulet.

We had a casual meeting at the Ta'Vaalor annex this week.

We are currently taking nominations for Master-at-arms. This person would have the duty of training and organizing us as a fighting unit during times of invasions and battles. Kysari has nominated Sharnath which was seconded by Aisalt. If you have someone you wish to nominate please seek out Ranpalandil or any of our house officers.

GM Alyias has updated the house clerks so that there is one in every major town now. This will allow us to induct new members, and invest new officers wherever we may be.

GM Sirina has updated the Profile verb and the officer plaque outside of our hall to include the fantastic new CHE artwork. GM Alyias says he will look into adding it as an option at the engraver's shop.

Landrat would like feedback on an idea of his to ammend the house Charter to limit the Guardian position to Rangers only. This was a topic of hot debate and we would like to hear everyone's thoughts on this so we can know if it's something that should be put to a vote.

Landrat [Willow Hall]: "Nuffin wrong wif Charter, jes an idea I had abouts one position in our leadership. I tinks dat de Willow Guardian should always be a Ranger."

Aisalt [Willow Hall]: "That makes sense to me." "It IS a ranger house."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "An interesting proposal, and I think there might be some support for that."

Rasti says, "Nah it is a rangerly house." "Our original charter was an iffy thing because of that you know." "We were told wewould not be approved as a ranger house." "But I do think we could probably bens the charter to say that a Ranger must preside as the Guardian."

Anta [Willow Hall]: "It's a house that embodies rangerly ideals but opens our doors to anyone who embraces such ideals." "Therefore it would be discriminating to limit it to profession only, I feel there have been people who are not rangers who are more rangerly than those with the title."

Landrat darkly says, "Cause we be a house of Rangerly values, an it makes sense dat only a ranger should lead dat."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "There have been some non rangers in that role though who did a wonderful job."

Landrat [Willow Hall]: "my thought be to only limit dat one position to de profession, so I toss it outs and de members decides."

Whispern says, "I know i have only recently returned and Ran has been doing a great job from what i can see but part of me agrees with landrats thought."

Landrat darkly says, "Well not limiting members to rangers just that one position to help guide the rest in rangerly ways."

Rasti says, "I'll say so as well but just letting you know why we are not an exclusive ranger house."

Anta says, "Like I said, I've known many non rangers who were more rangerly than those who were official rangers, and I would hate to prohibit someone, someday of being a fantastic leader just because they chose to study magic at a young age."

Rasti says, "Hmmm... I think that we should not be so exclusive."

Following that discussion Whisperm proposed once a month to have a recruitment tent in Ta'Vaalor. It was proposed that instead of a meeting in Ta'illistim once a month we could have a tent in Vaalor to recruit young members and also have a bounty help event while we are here.

Ranpalandil then adjourned the meeting.
