

Meeting minutes for Day of the Huntress, day 18 of the month Charlatos in the year 5111
Members in Attendance: Rasti, Ranpalandil, Landrat, Aisalt, Anta, Kizalia

Guests and Prospective Members: Kateerina, Ohnus

Kateering from Cairnfang Manor attended our meeting in Solhaven this week to discuss our support for their house status application.

Rasti asks, "So what says Cairnfang about their quest to become a member of the CHE?"

Kateerina says, "We have been working hard to make sure our application is the best it can be." "I probably know more about your house than yours so..." "We have been active in Solhaven since the path was found, Matriarch Songie founded us." "I believe we are celebrating fourteen years..." "The exact date was lost but close to it."

Kateerina says, "Our purpose is to support the Freeport of Solhaven and her people to the best of our ability." "We are not a military group, though many of our members are also officers or members of the local militia HERT."

"In wartime we do not muster but support as part of the military." "We have been looking forward to this chance since we were formed, and I am hoping I can fulfill Songie's visions for us."

Aisalt softly says, "there isn't currently a CHE in Solhaven is there?"

Kateerina says, "No." "And if we were offered the position but told to move for some reason we would turn it down." "This is our home." "And no matter what the outcome we will serve as we always have."

Rasti asks, "Have you any restrictions to your membership requirements?" "I was also wondering if you need be a citizen of Solhaven."

Kateerina says, "One must be able to hold vultite weapons." "One must be someone in good standing, but not a citizen." "We do not discriminate against race, sex or worship... except." "In the case of those who followed the Dark Alliance." "We also do not allow those who supported the baron Hostchib." "Songie was very firm in the original charter of only allowing those who support Solhaven, not wish to burn it down."

Anta asks, "So you're not a militia group. Your mission is to support Solhaven. How do you do that exactly?"

Kateerina says, "We host morale boosting events that cultivate a sense of community." "We have several annual large events." "The Winternights' festival, The Solhaven Grande Art Exhibit and the seafarers' Festival." "We have held more serious events like the festival of contemplation."

Ranpalandil asks, "We joined in a parade down here once, that was your group wasn't it?"

Kateerina exclaims, "Yes!" "I hope you will do it again this summer."

Ranpalandil exclaims, "We just might have to, it was fun!"

Kateerina says, "One thing to note is that while we do not let a snake into our home so to speak, we do allow all to participate in events."

Speaking to Kateerina, Ranpalandil asks, "You are looking for a letter of support from us?"

Kateerina says, "We are asking for a letter of support from Willow Hall..." "We know we would be a good fit in the CHE." "And we have proven time and time again we work well with other organizations."

Aisalt softly says, "I think it would be a grand addition to Solhaven."

Landrat darkly says, "Aye, sounds likes dey deserves our supports."

Ranpalandil says, "Yes, I can think of several points as to why they would make a good addition."

Rasti says, "I think we would be willing to do more than that..." "Have you collected the necessary bribes and silvers to begin construction?"

Kateerina says, "we have about 30 active members." "And over 22 are staying with the house."

Kateerina says, "We will have the silvers we need when the time comes." Members are digging in their bank accountd and we will be participating in an auction coming up." "While we are yes poor at this time."

Rasti asks, "And how would a gift from the Hall sit with you?"

Landrat darkly says, "As a means of support and friendship not bribes."

Rasti says, "Well I was hoping it might also be a bribe..." "But we would like to provide you with substantial support in this way should you you be granted a charter."

Kateerina says, "I would ask you hold off on those offers until we are accepted... there are other groups applying and I would not want to be premature." "I would also like to maybe ask for help in the form of hunts to earn silver... so we can get to know our new family and they can know us."

Aisalt softly says, "And perhaps help with auctions or whatever else is needed."

Ranpalandil says, "Rasti has made the point with me that a donation from Willow Hall might mean a lot to the powers, in considering your application.

Landrat darkly says, "We can pledge an amount on de approval prior to de act."

Kateerina says, "We have discussed asking the other houses for help hunting for the silvers like was done when some houses did not have a full endowment."

Kateerina says, "I would graciously accept whatever aid you wish to give on behalf of the members if we are granted the charter."

Rasti says, "So I say we make it know we have pledged 10 million silvers to the construction fund should they receive a charter."

Aisalt softly says, "I think the fact that the CHE does not have a House in Solhaven is going to be a big positive for Cairnfang."

Kateerina says, "Thank you all for your support and your kind words." "We are so hoping this happens and we cannot wait to work with you all." "I have always admired your house's members and your home... Tunder took me on many tours."

Landrat darkly says, "As de Seneschal and event coordinator fer de Hall, I jes asks ye remembers when we come callin fer events here to share wit ya." "We finds much success wit cooperative events."

Kateerina says, "We will be contacting you about the Seafest soon." "We work with other mhos and the lorekeepers now." "But look forward to working with the CHE."

Following that, Ranpalandil reminded everyone that next week's meeting is on Teras Isle and it will be the final meeting in our tour of the lands.

Our prizes for our prize closet are coming along nicely. So far we have a map case designed by Kizalia, a bow designed by Rasti, Landrat is working on fishing gear, Rasti is working on a skinning knife and/or foraging bag. Anta will work on a compass, Aisalt is working on a pink thrak toy and Kizalia and Anta are talking about a hunting horn. Again if you have any ideas you wish to submit for our prize closet, please contact any of our Willow Hall officers.
