This week was our monthly Ta'lllistim meeting. The meeting was called to order by Ranpalandil who began the meeting with closing the vote for Branch Guardian.

Congratulations to Landrat, the new Willow Hall Branch Guardian.

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "We are having an OOC discussion on multi accounting and the election system."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "That's a good point to bring up methinks."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Ranpalandil says, "Yes, and it needs to be on the net if we are going to take it up as Hall business."."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Thank you!"

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Me first."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "Anta raises a good point, the question is how do we deal with it."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "I disagree with multiaccounting in the Hall I do now like it and never will."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "For the record, this has nothing to do with the current vote, It was something I brought up before but Nattor requested me to wait until this vote was completed before we addressed it."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "I see no problem with multiaccounting as long and each and every one of them that are a member of the Hall are ACTIVE members."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "The easy answer is, make votes public. That way we can see just who is voting. Every player should have one vote."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "If a player has multiple characters in the hall, they should not be allowed to have multiple votes. That would be the same as padding the ballot."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "Yeah, its really the voting that gets screwed by it, nothing else, except maybe the number of characters but thats all screwed up anyway."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "Does anyone think having everyone know who you vote for will sway your vote or cause anyone to not vote?"

Anta: [Willow Hall] "For instance, this last vote received 23 votes. We have an active, participative member base of about ten."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "If you think about it.. IRL there are many organizations that have family members involved."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "I have no idea who MAs here to be honest and I've asked you to keep me in the drak about it."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "This vote got more votes than where the annex should be.. just saying."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "We have had 35 members log in in the last 7 days."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "But how many are participants in hall activities."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "And how many are alts?"

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "From what I know of I think there could have only been about 4 extra votes, but there may be some I don't know of."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "I think the point is if a member is active in the hall, participates and is in good standing, the person should have a vote."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "But if that person has more than one active characters in the hall, they should not get more than one vote."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "Yeah, but if you think about it.. not many people are going to split their votes, if I have 10 votes, I'd use them all in the same place."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "It'd be silly not to."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "And each and every one of us has the opportunity to do so."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "Does anyone think having everyone know who you vote for will sway your vote or cause anyone to not vote?"

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "As a person, why would you cancel your own vote, by voting for the other person on another character?"

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Absolutely not."

Sharnath: [Willow Hall] "I have no issue with public voting."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "Does anyone object to making all votes open and restricting votes to one per player?"

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "That would require the in game knowledge of which player can only have one vote."

Landrat: [Willow Hall] "'I have no objection to votes being open."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "No objection from me."

Kizalia: [Willow Hall] "No objection from me either."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Public vote fine by me."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "No objections."

Ohnus: [Willow Hall] "None here far as the open voting."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Perhaps this would be a good question to put to Alyias."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "Yes, to an extent we still have to trust our members to only cast one vote per player, but it should help."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "He'd be impartial."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "I do not think we should trouble Alyias with this Aisa... I think we should use the honor system."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "I agree with Rasti on that."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "That's fine with me to. Whatever is best for the Hall is what I'm going to support."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "Sometimes the players don't do the right thing."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "I actually agree with Aisalt on the last part."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "He'd have the best answer, or maybe a solution he could put in and help every house with this.."

Sharnath: [Willow Hall] "Should we bring something like this up to him there could be a question as to how many active members we have and that might open a whole new can of worms."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "Like an on or off switch for MA voting.. or something, that houses could change if they wanted.. heh."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "He's well aware of how many active players we have and how many are MA."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Good point Nattor."

Kizalia: [Willow Hall] "If there's nothing in the laws of the hall forbidding MAing in the hall, I can't see where Alyias could give more than opinion, I think."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "Also true Kiz.."

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "I hate when I agree with both sides of an arguement.. Damn it all.."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "Having more than one character in a house is fine, as long as you do not have more than one character as an officer of a house."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Its a complicated situation for sure."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "That's why Eahnnia just *took notes* for Aisalt when she was sick in Zul for a few months."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Not to devalue anyone's voice but in the last few weeks we faced two major crises which the hall has faced before, policing member activities and now multiaccounting. In the past these issues greatly disrupted the Hall. I do think we need to get Parliament to set some guidelines ."

Landrat: [Willow Hall] ""my question to this would quickly be, what of someone who MA's but the added character is more active and supportive of the hall than many single character players."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Good point love."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "Regardless of how active your other characters are, they are being played by the same person, who should only get one say."

Landrat: [Willow Hall] ""I completely agree Rasti."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "Just to hear from the other side, does anyone think that if you are paying for two character slots you deserve a second vote?"

Erelad: [Willow Hall] "I have no say here.. I only have one in the house."

Landrat: [Willow Hall] ""I believe so, but only if that character is also and active part of the Hall and participates in events as any other member."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Actually I think if there are multi chyaracters played by one person in the hall and all the characters are active, support the hall and are in good standing, they should have a vote."

Ohnus: [Willow Hall] "Not and stay true to any kind of process in my opinion."

Ohnus: [Willow Hall] "Shouldnt anyone have control of more than one vote."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "Then it will be all too easy for me to use the rest of my premium subscription slots to roll up some characters that will be active for a month or so, gain membership to the hall, disappear into the woodwork like 140 of our active players and when voting comes up, log in each of them and stack the votes."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Once again I think we should table this discussion, allow Parliament to address it and then vote on a policy. I will gladly serve on the Parliament under Landrat's direction."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Perhaps we could have a separate membership type? Say 'auxiliary member" for other characters? They wouldn't have a vote?"

Nattor: [Willow Hall] "Can you even do that?"

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "We'd really have to be honest."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "I agree with Rasti that the issues he brought need to be addressed. And our new Branch Guardian is the correct person to lead parliament is a discussion of it."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] "Not sure on that."

Anta: [Willow Hall] "We'd have to be privy to that information, and I believe only GM's are. I think the on off flag for non MA voting is the ideal solution here."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "I was up all night counting silvers and you will hear my report..."

Ranpalandil: [Willow Hall] "Ok, let's table this discussion for a moment at least and hear how many silvers we have."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "As of my last report, on the Day of the Huntress, the 29th day of Olaesta, in the year 5111,;; Willow Hall's coffers held 355,465,434 silvers."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Alyias mad adjustments to the Hall's Influence Points.;; We spent 9 points for the construction of the Fireside Room and gained 3,;; leaving us with 88 points."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Alyias also deposited the proceeds from the Sylvarrend Raffle of 625,000 silvers."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Ohnus was inducted into the Hall,;; he paid the necessary 25,000 silver intitiation fee."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Erelad gifted the Hall with 360,221 silvers."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Anta deposited 500,000 silvers."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Ranpalandil made deposits totalling 196,854 silvers,;; and Landrat turned in a deposit of 68,061 more."

Aisalt: [Willow Hall] ">::cheer:: Erelad."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Willow Hall closed its coffers on 357,240,570 silvers."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Please give generously to Willow Hall."

Rasti: [Willow Hall] "Thank goodness."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "Thank you Rasti."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "Ok, before we go on, Nattor and Anta are you satisfied that the vote for Branch Guardian was fair, enough, and are you satisfied with the results?"

Nattor [Willow Hall]: "I asked Anta to not bring this up before actually. I didn't want to change the outcome of this vote either way."

Anta [Willow Hall]: "I of course stand by it, I love Landrat."

Landrat [Willow Hall]: "Good now I know everyone loves me, you can all be apart of the parliament to fix our issues civilly."

Anta [Willow Hall]: "I think i'll just continue pointing out the issues, thank you very much."

Landrat [Willow Hall]: "'pointin dem out leads to finding solutions."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "Ok, is there any other business we should bring up at this point?"

Rasti [Willow Hall]: "OK then, the last major issue from the past was the sharing of officer characters to other players who did unofficerly things. Do we want to nip this in the bud before someone does it?"

Anta [Willow Hall]: "When did that happen?"

Aisalt [Willow Hall]: "Have no clue what happened either."

Rasti [Willow Hall]: "Githlander and yours truly."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "Rasti could you explain what you mean more clearly?"

Rasti [Willow Hall]: "Well i was on Alexys bad list for a while and Gith was expelled from the hall."

Landrat [Willow Hall]: "'Rasti, my friend, I believe that to be an issue that will also be addressed by the Parliament."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "Rasti, will you agree to be on the Parliment?"

Rasti [Willow Hall]: "My thoughts entirely... and remember in the past we used to fill the mana pool before an enchant... we all shared ourselves a bit more back then."

Rasti [Willow Hall]: "So it may not be an issue and yes I would be glad to sit on parliament again."

Nattor [Willow Hall]: "Filling mana pools was awesome."

Aisalt [Willow Hall]: "I remember those days."

Kizalia [Willow Hall]: "It wasn't all bad."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "Any other volunteers to help Landrat with this project?"

Sharnath [Willow Hall]: "I'll volunteer if needed."

Kizalia [Willow Hall]: "Me too."

Nattor [Willow Hall]: "I'll do it. If needed."

Aisalt [Willow Hall]: "As President of Judges I'll abstain."

Landrat [Willow Hall]: "And I volunteer Ohnus."

Landrat [Willow Hall]: ""and I already drafted you Nattor."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "There are some rumors floating around that events may prevent me from being at the next meeting or the next bounty help."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "So I need someone to volunteer to be coordinartor for the bounty help."

Aisalt [Willow Hall]: "You'll be missed. We put Landrat to work."

Aisalt [Willow Hall]: "If all else fails.... I'll do it."

Landrat [Willow Hall]: ""I'll do what I can. Can I be inducted in abstencia? or on de Isle?"

Rasti [Willow Hall]: "I say no more than 3 under you Landrat. I'll draft a hardcore policy someone come up with the other kind and we'll work out the differences."

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "Any other business?"

Ranpalandil [Willow Hall]: "Hearing no new business I move that the meeting be adjourned."

Ranpalandil then adjourned the meeting.
